The Malacological Society of London was founded on 27 February 1893. The Society was registered as a Charity in 1978 (Registration No. 275980) with the Rules which were adopted on 17 May 1978 and subsequently revised on 25 March 1998. The objects of the Society are to advance education, research and learning for the public benefit in the study of the Mollusca from both pure and applied aspects. Membership is open to all individuals who are interested in the study of molluscs. Each year the Society makes an Annual Award for an initial contribution to malacology, and also a number of awards for research, travel and other purposes for the advancement of malacology.
